Dear Parents,

Christos Anesti! Christ is Risen!

We are thrilled to be opening registration for Vacation Bible School and for the first time, it will take place online! (Please be sure to call or email me if you need the link) Our theme this year is “Discover Your Strength in God”. Children will learn how to 'find their strength in God' through this superhero themed week. Each day will be dedicated to a special theme: Heart, Courage, Wisdom, Hope, and Power. Our prayer is to show the kids that all of God's heroes have these virtues, and they do too!

This program can't go on without the help of our precious volunteers. I humbly ask that any parent who may be interested in volunteering please contact me at 904-396-5383x12 or email me at pastoral.assistant@stjohnthedivine.com. We will be accepting a limited number of teenage volunteers in grades 8-12. If your teenager would like to volunteer, please have them register online and attend a mandatory training session on Sunday, May 20 at 1 PM in the Church Hall.

Finally, due to the overwhelming excitement and enrollment in our Vacation Bible School, we strongly encourage you to register your children early because space is limited. This year, space for students will be limited to the number of adult volunteers who are available to assist us so that we can maintain an acceptable student-teacher ratio. The final day to register is May 30. We will not be accepting any enrollments after this deadline unless we have adequate staff in place to maintain a low student-teacher ratio.

Looking forward to seeing you at Vacation Bible School.

In Christ,

Alyssa Kyritsis, MDiv

Pastoral Assistant at St. John the Divine
